

Billboard Boys: The Documentary

Wednesday, September 5 at 6:30 p.m.

The Easton Area Public Library hosts Philadelphia independent filmmakers Pat Taggart and Frank Petka for a screening of Billboard Boys, the true story of three men who lived on a billboard platform in Allentown as part of a radio contest. The program will be followed by a question-and-answer session.

This free program will be held in the Catherine Drake Meeting Room on the lower level of the Main Library.

Handicapped access is available from the Church Street entrance.
Light refreshments will be provided by the Friends of the Library.

For more information, call 610-258-2917 ext. 310