

Updating Northampton County's History . . .

How I Got That Story

Book Talk with
Veteran Journalist
Glenn Kranzley

Tuesday, April 17 at 6:30 pm

Easton Area Public Library - Catherine Drake Room

515 Church St., Easton, PA

*Glenn Kranzley talks about his new book Still Changing, Still Home: Northampton County since the 1950's

Kranzley, a lifelong resident of the Lehigh Valley, worked as a Bethlehem Globe Times reporter and Morning Call opinion page editor until he retired. His experience as a writer-researcher led the NCHGS to choose Kranzley to update the previous local history titled Northampton Heritage: The Story of an American County by E. Gordon Alderfer published in 1953.

Among the topics covered in the book are the economic shift from industrial manufacturing to service and retail, the loss of farmland, changes in the makeup of the population, and the evolution of the area's culture, transportation, schools, and government.

Books will be available for sale and signing. The event is free and open to all. The Drake Room is handicapped accessible from Church Street. Light refreshments will be provided. For more information, call 610-258-2917 ext. 307.
