

Pianists Return with “Gypsy Fire”

Enjoy an afternoon of classical music when pianists Matthew Harrison and Vlada Yaneva of Masterwork Conversations return to the Easton Area Public Library on Saturday, June 15 at 1 p.m.

The program is titled “Gypsy Fire” and features The Hungarian Rhapsodies of Franz Liszt and the Hungarian Dances of Johannes Brahms. You’ll experience the music through the new sound system funded by the Friends of the Library.

Matthew and Vlada describe Masterwork Conversations as “an innovation project born from the necessity for a stronger link between audiences and classical music...Through our years of performance experience, we have discovered how much listeners enjoy learning about the composers, the history of the pieces, and curious aspects of the creative process.”

The program is free and open to the public. It will be held in the Catherine Drake Room, which is handicapped assessable from Church Street. Light refreshments will be provided.
