10 am - 2 pm

Fun for Kids and Families!

- * A look at the Easton Flag with a brief explanation about its amazing history, and then a coloring page to make and take.
- * A look at a replica of the Declaration of Independence & a chance to try to write your own "John Hancock" with a feather quill pen.
- * A "photo booth" experience at which you can don colonial garb and have a photo taken to take home.
- * A short movie about the American Revolution with popcorn and lemonade.
- * Tours for ADULTS of the Carnegie Library building.
- * Sit in the shade or enjoy our air-conditioning.
- * All of these activities are FREE.
- * Sponsored by the Friends of the Library.
